

Teachers' guide – summary sheet

1. IDENTIFICATION DETAILS

Title:	Degree in Law (Plan 2010)
Faculty/School:	Law and Social Sciences
Course subject:	Criminal Law II
Type:	Obligatory	Credits ECTS: 6
Year / Semester:	2nd year – 3rd semester	Code: 7222
Subject:	Criminal Law
Module:	Public Law
Language:	Spanish
Total number of hours undertaken by pupil:	150

2. DESCRIPTION OF THE COURSE

The subject of Criminal Law II corresponds to the modulus of Public Law, within the field of criminal law. Taught in the first half of year 2.

3. SKILLS TO DEVELOP

3.1. General skills

To know the substantive content of legal disciplines and of those complementary to them.
Apply theoretical knowledge to problem solving.
Investigate, handle and manage information sources.
Acquiring the ability of analysis, synthesis, evaluation and critical thinking.
Learn autonomously.
Communicate effectively orally and in writing to different contexts, using the technical language when the situation requires.
Develop the necessary features needed to work in teams, adapt to new situations, be tolerant, to develop an ethical and social commitment.

3.2. Specific skills

Understand the concepts, institutions and legal relationships and their rationale
Get unitary perception of the legal and necessary interdisciplinary view of the legal
Identify the vocabulary of legal, political, economic and philosophical
Provide creative and imaginative solutions to legal , personal and professional issues, and for the approach or the sources used
Use the principles and constitutional values to interpret the legal system
Apply principles and ethical values in personal and professional life
Manage the legal sources (legal, jurisprudential and doctrinal) applicable to the case study
Mastering computer skills in obtaining legal information (databases, legislation, jurisprudence, literature)
Show a critical awareness of the legal analysis, being able to identify the adequacy of the rule to the ideal of Justice
Develop habits of rigorous thinking, exercising the ability to analyze and synthesize.
Apply techniques of legal argument, offering their views in a reasoned, informed and tolerant
Reflect on their learning with self-criticism, identifying areas for improvement based on criteria of quality and excellence
Use feedback
Develop legal oratory and ability to speak properly before an audience
Read and interpret legal texts
Drafting legal texts and other documents of interest university, with clarity, accuracy, and proper use of legal terminology
Work as a team, actively contributing to the group's task
Show sensitivity to basic human rights

4. PRE-REQUISITES

To follow up this subject requires knowledge of Criminal Law General Section.

5. WORK TIME DISTRIBUTION

CONTACT HOURS	REMOTE STUDY HOURS
60	90

6. OBJECTIVES

Identify each type of crime in the various elements of the crime as legal property, authenticity, and justification, guilt, forms of appearance and penalty.

7. INDEX OF SUBJECTS

1. Crimes against persons
2. Crimes against the Company
3. Offences against the State

8. METHODOLOGY/LEARNING ACTIVITIES

Apply the methodology and activities consistent with the objectives and competencies arising.

9. EVALUATION SYSTEM

The evaluation system proposed is consistent for testing students the acquisition of knowledge and skills offered.

10. BIBLIOGRAPHY

Ley Orgánica 10/1995, de 23 de noviembre

Jurisprudence

MUÑOZ CONDE, Derecho Penal. Parte Especial, 18ª ed. revisada y puesta al día, Valencia: Tirant lo Blanch, 2010

QUINTERO OLIVARES / MORALES PRATS/ e.a, Comentarios a la Parte Especial del Derecho Penal, 8ª ed, Pamplona: Aranzadi, 2009.

VIVES ANTÓN / ORTS BERENGUER / CARBONELL MATEU / GONZÁLEZ CUSSAC / MARTÍNEZBUJÁN

PÉREZ, Derecho Penal. Parte Especial, Valencia: Tirant lo Blanch, 2010